MANSFIELD DESTROYERS

JUNIOR BASEBALL CAMP

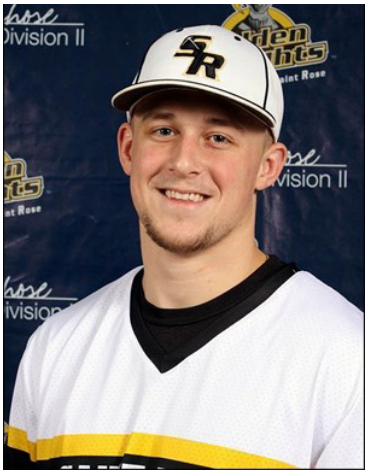
$80 JUNE 29-30 OR JULY 6-7

Experience two days or back to back weekends of high-quality instruction from Mansfield's own collegiate summer team, the Mansfield Destroyers. Some of the players assisting with the camp come from Division I colleges such as Kentucky, Xavier, Villanova, UC Davis to name a few. The first annual Jr. Destroyers Baseball Camp includes instruction each day in all aspects of the game, including hitting mechanics, infield & outfield drills, pitching, and catching. This camp is an opportunity for kids ages 5 - 18 to take their game to the next level. The cost of the two-day camp is $80 and open to both boys and girls.

June 29-30	9am-Noon (ages 11-18)
	Noon-3pm (ages 5-10)
July 6-7	9am-Noon (ages 11-18)
	Noon-3pm (ages 5-10)

Forms can be found and printed off the Destroyers website.

ZAC BELLINGER



The camp will be run by Zac Bellinger who played Division I baseball for Virginia Commonwealth University and Division II baseball for The College of Saint Rose in Albany, NY. Zac played three seasons in the PGCBL for the Elmira Pioneers and one season in the CPL for the Florence RedWolves. Zac helped lead Thomas A. Edison to four consecutive section IV class "C" championships and honored as the New York class "C" Player of the Year as a senior.
